At the following elections he was re-elected by the same district, obtaining a large majority over the official candidate. Since then he has taken a prominent part in discussions on special subjects concerning public works, such as railways, interior navigation &c. He was on several occasions a member of the Budget Commission Budget of Public Works. In the same year he was appointed by decree undersecretary of that ministry, and two years later became Minister of Public Works in VELOCITY, British barque, Capt. R. Mar- the Ferry Cabinet. As a minister he set himself to carry out the great public works he had studied while Under Secretary. He was re-elected in August 1881 by his constituents, without opposition. In November of the same year he gave in his resignation with the other members of the Ferry Cabinet. In April 1-82 he became Minister of Finance in the Freyoinet-Ferry Cabinet which succeeded Gambetta. I January, 1884, he was reappointed to that office in the Freydiant Cabinet. He was one of the vice-Presidents of the Chamber of Deputies.

I is reported among the Chinese that Ching Sam, the man who was liberated here from the clutches of the Chinese Government, mainly by the zealous defence of Mr Dennys, has at last fallen into the hands of the officials who fought so long for his rendition in Hongkong. He joined a band of 30 men, it is said, who went on a plundering expedition in the Shan Tak district. Li-chan-ting, an officer in charge of the district, sent out men to seize them. A light ensued. Six of the robbers were killed and several wound and two or three soldiers Europe. Even here, in France, this is were killed. Ching Sam was wound and captured. He was brought to Canton by the officer, found guilty with far less trouble than was taken with his case Hongkong, and he has already paid with his hand the sum of his iniquities. THE election of M. Sadi Carnot to be President of the French Republic comes rather. as a surprise. In this case, however, as happened in America at the election of President Garfield, it has doubtless been seen that the rival claims of M. Ferry and M. Freycinet were so nearly balanced that road is considered easy work, comparatively: it would be impossible to secure the election of either. A neutral man was thus pitched upon for whose election the whole | deeply interested, of making Keelung a port party could unite. The choice, we think will generally be regarded as a happy one. M. Sadi Carnot is not a man who has made much noise or been a vehement partieun He has formed part both of a Ferry and a Freycinet cabinet, and in all his offices. he assumed the role of the working member. He comes of a family, which has made name for itself in French history. His grandfather, Lazare Nicholas Carnot, an engineer by profession like the new President. took a prominent part in the first French Revolution: and so successful was he organising the military affairs of the Republic that it was said of him he forganised victory.' Sadi Carnot, an engineer, a man devoted to carnest work, indicates a desire for peace and ought to be a check on the frothy name of General Boulanger. What people now look forward to with interest is the selection he will make for his first cabinet. Governments are most unstable in France. The new cabinet will be the fourteenth or fifteenth that have held the rems of power factory way. The following are the prinduring the last ten years. This vaciliation and instability have been most detrimental to the country, more particularly as regards its financial affairs. The lines of President Carnot are certainly not cost in very pleas sant places. The revanche feeling is still powerful in the country, and incidents are frequently occurring which might lead to an open rupture between France and Germany. The result of the present election has been eagerly watched on the other side of the Rhine, where the election of Boulanger would have been regarded almost as a declaration of war. ENGLAND AS A PEACE PRESERVER. - The COFrespondent of the Times at Paris says :-Since the journey of Signor Orispi there is visible not only in France, but in Russia, a less hostile feeling against England; and in St. Petersbury, as here, it seems to be now understood that in the present state of affairs Eugland, by her quexpected aseistance, might at any moment throw an immense weight into the scale in favour of peace. As she has bound herself to inone. she remains free, if circomstances render it necessary, to menuos those who seem inclined for war, to bring her formidable aid to their adversaries, and to maintain by her independent attitude the tranquillity of thought a guarantee for peace, for no one doubts that England more than any other Power desires peace, and there is much greater confidence in her picitic disposition than in that of Italy, in spite of the solemn declarations of Italian statesmen

FORMOSAN RAILWAYS AND HARBOUR IM-PROVEMENTS - Wo understand, says ( ) Shanghai Courier, that the works on the railroad intended to connect the Tea Districts of Formosa with Keeling are progressing more favourably, since the cholera fiend has disappeared from amongst the workmen, although many of them now suffor severely from fever and ogue. We believe it is intended to continue the railway to Tai-wan-foo later on. The Tai-wan-foo because no tunnelling need be done. We hear the practicability is seriously considered, by the parties most concerned and for large tea steamers. Large vessels may indeed even now enter the port, but they would onjoy no shelter during North East gales. We believe the intention is to dredge a cort in portion of the harbour and build a break-water at another. The thing is quite feasible, and is only a question of money. time, perserverance, and skill. Thevenet. Spence, princely mercantile houses, syndicates to the front ! The utility of making Keelung a regular harbour for home tex steamers is obvious, if they would go in Keelung harbour alongside the railway pier and load tea. As it is now tea must be loaded in lighters first, then be transhipped to coasting steamers in Tamaui, and after being detained for want of water on the bar for several days perhaps, arrives ultimately at Amoy, is discharged into cargo boats, then perhaps must be landed and stored in godowns, and will be reshipped, some time or other, into cargo boats, to be brought alongside the home steamer; all these various processes do not tend to cheapen the

The Garrison rifts competitions at the Kowloon Range, for prizes presented by the community of Hongkong in honour of Her Majesty's Jubilce, were concluded this afternoon. The principal prize, the Jubiles Cup, which is valued at $50 fell to Lance Corporal Bellamy of the 58th Regiment, whose aggregate score for the three ranges 200, 300 and 500 yards, was 89. The highest score made yesterday for the cup was that of Sergt. Fricker, who put on 85, but it was not expected that this would remain the top score. The number of entries for the competitions was over six hundred, and the shooting on the whole was worthy of the Regiment which stands among the first in the service for marksmanship. On neither of the two days were the conditions for high scoring altogether favourable, the wind being too strong on the first day, while to day, al though it had less force, it was from its uncertainty still more unfavourable. The committee of officers, consisting of Major Ellis, 58th Regiment | Capt. Sankey, R.A. Capt. Stanley, Ordinance Store department: Surgeon Thompson, A.M.D.; and Lieut. THE RECENT LOSS OF SEVEN LIVES. To the Editor of the CHINA MAIL Dec. 6th, 1887

Sir .- May I ask; in the name of Justice to the poor victims, if the Government feel they have done their duty in contenting thomselves with the mengre enquiry that was held, actually under the officer largely responsible for what was done at the fireand many will think for the loss of lives .-seeing that there is not one word of evidence to show that he took the slightest trouble to have the Fire Escapes used, or directod his men to endeavour to find out if the inmutes had escaped ? One cannot but stigmatize the late enquiry as little better than a cruel farce. Does any man of right feeling in this Colony think the Superintendent is free from the very gravest con- darkly at a scan lal concerning a prominent burlesque of a responsible office. - Yours,

ALLAMJEE JIBONJEE PETSUS J. S. LUCAS, This is a claim for $500 on a promissory. note dated 5th Dec. 1878. The plaintiff left the Colony at that time and I did not return till 1884. Mr Webber appeared for the plaintiff and Mr Wilson. (Mossrs Wotton and Deacon's Office) for the defendant. The defence was that the plaintiff had received satisfaction on goods for the promissory note, and that in any case the matter came under the statute of limitations. no application having been made within the period of six years.

The following evidence was called:-James S. Lucas, the defendant, said-I came to the Colony some seventeen or eighteen years ago. I am sued in this suit as Baroocha. My name is not Baroocha; that is the name of the country to which I belong. When I was in the Police my name was Jamenjee Sorabjee Baroocha, and when I became christian I took the name of James Sorab Lucas. Baroocha was my nickname. In December 1878 I had some transactions with the plaintiff in Mauila lottery tickets, and I got some orders from him for goods, both before and after the signing of the document produced. Some of my account books were destroyed in a fire which broke out in my premises in 1878, and those that were saved I have since lost. I admit that I owed 8:00 on the note produced. When he was going away we made an account, and plaintiff made out the body of the note produced and I signed it. I have satisfied him for his promissory note by sending him goods from Hongkong to Bombay. The goods were sont in 1879. I left Hongkong that year, and while travelling from Amoy to Swatow by land I lost my box with all the books and papers relating to my dealings with the plaintiff. I came back here about May or June, 1880. Since then I have not s ayed away from Hongkong except for short periods, not exceeding two months. when I was in Amoy. From 1850 to the time the present summons was served on me I never had been applied to for this

By Mr Webber-It was between December and July that I sent the goods to plaintiff. The goods consisted of jawellery, Manila cigars. Japanese ware, &c. I sent over $500 worth.

By the Court-I have had no transactions with plaintiff since 1880. Allanies Jibonjee Tavaria, the plaintiff, said-I am a shopkeeper and commission agent. The note produced was written by me in consequence of the defendant owing I lent him $50) and he told me to write this and I signed it. Nobody was when I gave the plaintiff the I left for India on the 5th December. 1878, and returned in December 1884. Daring the time I was not here I never received any goods from the defendant. ENGLISH GOSSIP AND SCANDALS. London, Nov. 5 .- Out of all the yards of stuff in the English papers concerning Cabinet changes, there appears to be one indisputed fact, and that is that the amiable nowsvendor, Smith, is to give up his position in the Cabinet and as leader of the House at the time Parliament meets and accept promotion to the pourage, and that Goschen will take his place as leader of the Tories. The principal Tory papers hint

THIS Review, which was intended to meet 1 the wants of many students of Chinese caused by the discontinuance of 'Notes and Queries on China and Japan, has reached its Fourteenth Volume. The Review discusses those topics which are uppermost in the ininds of students of the Far East' and about which every intelligent person connected with China or Japan is desirous of acquiring trustworthy information. It includes many interesting Notes and original Papers on the Arts, Sciences, Ethnology, Folklore, Geography, History, Literature, Mythology, Natural History, Antiquities, and Social Manners and Customs, etc., etc., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, and the Far East generally. Recently a new departure has been taken, and the Review now gives papers on Trade, Commerce, and Descriptive notes of Travel by well-known writers. ness of style; and an account of the career of the Chinese post-statesman of the eleventh century, Su Tung-p'o, by Mr. E. C. Bowra, is not only historically valuable, but is also, batinguished by its literary grace. Beside not ces of new books relating to Chins and the East, which will be a naeful feature of the Review, if carried out with punctuality detail, we are glad to notice that Notes' and 'Queries' are destined to find a place in its pages also. It is to be hoped that this opening for contributions on Chinese subjects may evoke a similar degree of literary zeal to that which was displayed during the lifetime of its predecessor in the field, and that the China Review may receive the support necessary to manre
